Princeton, Ky., Oct. 20, 1885.
The Editor of the Herald:

get their satisfaction. But RICHIE'S PILLS are guaranteed to give excellent relief in the treatment of all nervous, constipation, headache, indigestion, chills, etc. They are purely vegetable and free of sugar content, and cost only 25c per box. I usually try it upon strangers to obtain results, and it does when they fail to give me satisfaction. Everyone who gets a box, therefore, is requested, if not thoroughly satisfied, to go back and report get their money back.

Hon. H. D. McHenry received a telegram, yesterday, at 11 o'clock, A. M., from Gen. S. B. Jackson and Senator Jas. B. Beck, announcing that the gentlemen would reach Hartford next Friday.
Mr. F. M. Brodie, general agent for the "Southern Journal," the able and popular writer in Kentucky, was here last week, and received several subscribers to his paper. Mr. Brodie is a genial gentleman and an accomplished journalist.
How is it, that Small's can sell goods so much cheaper than any other house. Because they buy their goods in New York at the same place, where Louisville and Cincinnati houses buy theirs, and therefore can sell cheaper than any other house can buy. Try Small's Trade Palace.
Esquire Logan Atchuck brought to our office last Monday a section of a petrifaction brought in from Missouri by N. F. Atchuck, of Lincoln county, that state. The piece is four inches by the same in breadth. It is supposed to belong to the species known as the sandstone.
The committee appointed at the recent meeting of the citizens of Hartford, to get up statistics concerning the proposed railroad in this place, have made their report, and we suppose that Hon. H. D. McHenry will now confer with Mr. C. P. Huntington, and see what terms the road can be built.
Dr. W. R. Saunders, well known to many of our readers, has permanently located in Rock. We congratulate the people of that place and vicinity on the acquisition to their society of a skillful physician and upright gentleman, and a family of intelligence and refinement. We wish Dr. Saunders success in his new home.
The rendition of "Gaiety" by the True Walker Company was truly enjoyable last evening at the Grand. The staging and costuming was elegant, and the Gaiety of Miss Walker we would imagine as the author's idea of the use of scene being particularly fine.—Chicago Times.
HERBERT RALE—Attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of a public sale of Herbert Rale at Louisville. The sale will be made on the well-known "Glenview" farm, and the cattle are first-class representatives of the quality of his great land. The Herbert Rale has a growing popularity, and even in Kentucky the level is catching itself. The sale is in the hands of Mr. Henry believes in, and is willing to make sacrifices for.
The proposition to build the Hartford branch road will soon be laid before Mr. C. P. Huntington with some assurance that the matter will be favorably considered, it may be that a few thousand dollars will be asked to aid in constructing the road, and in that event our people should be ready to subscribe liberally. Property holders of Hartford cannot much longer delay doing something to cause an increase in business and an influx of population.
J. W. Maddox, who had for some time been engaged here with Dr. F. Tracy in the blacksmithing business, left for Canfield, Texas, on the 17th of last month, where he will be engaged at his trade. Mr. Maddox's position, has been offered a very good position there. He has a long time of his characteristic speech—namely, argumentative, logical, and thorough; Hon. E. D. Walker, as usual, sustained his high reputation as a cogent reasoner, other speeches were made, pointed, terse, and convincing. Prohibition has able and enthusiastic advocates in Ohio county to win, however, it must be a strong pull, a long pull, and a pull altogether.
The "summary law" clause of the Constitution has nothing to do with prohibition. Prohibitionists do not say what you shall or shall not drink, they simply mean to keep people from selling or giving intoxicants to others. Hence no restraint on the constitution is violated in this or in spirit. The salient feature of the constitution is the right to hold no good on investment, where the prohibitionists direct to prescribe what citizens should drink, and demand that such a law be passed, every reasonable man would vote against it, but no such demand is made. It is simply a question of making and selling.

The celebrated Arne Walker Dramatic Co., have arrived with a ton or more of baggage and scenery, and are transforming the skating into an Open House, and give a grand opening performance to night, appearing in that world renowned dramatic picture of ancient times life (with accurate (dramatic costumes) entitled, Agamemnon and Antony. They will also play a very funny after piece, called the Little Rebel. The company is composed of ten ladies and gentlemen, and are well equipped with scenery. The gentlemen composing the company give every evidence of refinement and culture, and we bespeak for them a quick reception, and liberal patronage.
Totally injured.
Mr. Wick Davis, old and hard of hearing was on the railroad track at Nelson, last Friday; the west-bound train, after repeated whistles to the old man to get off the track, and being under full headway at the time, knocked him all; the injured man was taken to Rockport for medical treatment, but was later taken to Nelson the same day. It was said that he received fatal injuries. Mr. Davis was over seventy years of age. Since writing for the foregoing we are informed that Mr. Davis died last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and was buried at the old family burying ground in Muhlenberg county.
A fortunate family.
Mrs. Mary Ann Mosely died at her home in Henderson county, on the 23rd of this month. The remains were interred in the Bethel cemetery, near Hillsboro. After the burial Mr. Mosely left with the remainder of his family—two children—he resided permanently in Ohio county, and took passage on a Green River packet for Rockport. An infant child, a boy, six months old, which was sick at the time of starting, died of flux on the landing of the boat at Rockport, on the 26th. The remains of the child were interred in the Bethel cemetery, near Horton. Mr. Mosely and the remaining child, four years of age, were taken to Rockport, but are now in a fair way to recover.
Mrs. Mosely wishes to return thanks to Mr. R. Y. Murrehead, of Rockport, for his recent kindness to him in his trouble.
A death in the family.

Rev. P. A. Edwards, who has had charge of the Hartford district for two years past, has been assigned to Horse Cave circuit, in the Bowling Green District.
Hites by a man.
Mr. Wm. W. Daugherty, of Indian Camp Creek, Butler county, was bitten on the leg by a wild man on the 20th of September. The man was bitten by a mad dog early in the spring, but showed no signs of rabies until the 27th of September, when it began to bite the man with which it was working. The man was the property of Mr. Howard, a neighbor of Mr. Daugherty, and was taken by a son of Howard's in Daugherty's, the latter was adjusting the harness when the man bit him on the arm above the elbow. The man was slightly strangled, but it is thought that no virus was communicated to the circulation, as the strangled interposed between the man's arm and the animal's teeth. The owner of the man, Mr. Howard, was severely bitten on the arm above the elbow. The man was taken to the hospital and is now recovering. The biting occurred a short time before the man was taken to the hospital, after having bitten himself in the arm, and was taken to the hospital and it was said that the animal was dead with the mouth full of its own blood.
